Inspector Pilecki,
NYPD, Parking Enforcement District
330 West 34th Street,
New York New York 10001

Dear Inspector Pilecki,

CHEKPEDS is grateful for your leadership in pedestrian safety, with the roll out of NYPD's "Pedestrian First" program. We had shared our concerns that current TEAs protocols did not seem to reflect this new focus at complex intersections. Manhattan Community Board 4 echoed these concerns in our meeting with you on year ago.

Today we are pleased to commend
Officer DUNNELL for
"Excellence in Pedestrian Safety"

On July 25th, during the 6:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. shift, one of our members, David Solnick, noticed Officer Dunnell (Tax # 351974). He was so impressed that he immediately went over to the local dispatch office on 34th St, to commend the work of this particularly competent officer working the difficult intersection of 42nd St and 9th Ave.

Please share our praises with Officer Dunnell. His actions are an excellent model for others. His superiors also deserve our appreciation for their intelligent work and dedication.

Best Regards.
